Credit, Debt & Income

FOR CHRISTIANS

Keith Hammond

Introduction

What if someone were to tell you that as a Christian, you were never supposed to get into debt of any kind?

That includes your home mortgage, car note, etc.

You would probably ask, “Well how in the world are we supposed to live?” My answer would be simple...”freely.” Not meaning that these things are supposed to be free to you, but you’re not supposed to be paying for them without being able to afford them, and they are not supposed to be keeping you in bondage like most Christians are, to the stress that comes along with buying stuff that has absolutely no bearing on whether or not we make it to Heaven, but has everything to do with why your health is failing, you have headaches, untold stress at work, and other things.

If you’re like most Christians, you are living in a world full of stress that comes with trying to keep up with the Joneses, a metaphor for spending all your time, effort, energy, and thoughts on trying to work hard enough and long enough just to be able to buy things of this world. And that’s not at all what Jesus suffered, died, and rose again for us to do.

Galatians 5:1 says, “Stand Fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.”

In this Scripture, are volumes of wisdom for many circumstances and situations. This book, focuses on three of the most difficult areas for Christians to manage. It shows:

How to break free from credit

How to avoid and eliminate debt

How to establish multiple streams to overcome lack of income.

When you’re done reading this book and start applying some of the proven and Biblical techniques, your life should be vastly different than before.
