When any person surrenders their life to Christ, there is a process.

That process includes confession, repentance, baptism, and what is possibly the most important aspect of the transformation, ‘the Holy Spirit’.

What Is The Holy Spirit?

The power of God works in mysterious ways. This means that there's no need to try and understand how or why it works. There's no need to try and analyze, classify, categorize, or even dissect it. It works, period.

God's power is limitless. He has the ability, the authority, and the anointing, to activate it, and to affect anything He wants, when He wants, how He wants.

Here's an example:

In a recent dream, I was standing outside a room looking into the room through a doorway. There were several people in the room, but I couldn't really see their faces, but I knew my pastor was there. I could see him.

The focus in the room was centered on a woman, dressed in a white gown, or dress, it was linen. She was seated in a soft fabric arm chair about waist high.

The people in the room were standing around her, and before I knew it, she began to transform. Her body laid flat, stiff as a board, still on the chair. Her body folded and contorted into a square. Then it elevated off the chair and just hovered there.

I tried to look away, but couldn't. God wanted me to see what was coming next.

Her face, began to disfigure and she began to spew all kinds of evil words. It was demonic.

The next thing I knew, I walked into the room, walked over to her, and began to speak in tongues.

I could hear the words I was saying to her, but I couldn't understand it. And I didn't need to. God was using the Holy Spirit to speak through me to reach the woman, and rid her of this demon that had taken control of her body.

While I was speaking, I laid hands on the woman by quickly touching her head, shoulders, arms. And the more I laid hands on her, the smaller she got. And before I knew it, she was the size of a small gift box and I was quickly touching it until it cracked, and disappeared.

When it was over, the woman was back in the chair, in her original form, seated.

But it wasn't over.

I left the room and the next part of the dream began. This time, the same people were gathered, in a church setting, seated in pews. My pastor was there. And so was the woman. Only, when I walked by, I could see she wasn't completely healed yet. She was free of the demon, but had not walked into her deliverance.

I walked up to her, and noticed that her eyes were half closed, and one of them was moving back and forth, left and right, inside the socket.

I stepped in front of her, and without laying a hand on her, began to speak normal words to her with the most prominent words being "IN THE NAME OF JESUS!" She got up from the pew, and walked forward, to the front of the church, eyes opened, completely healed, and delivered.

The power that showed me the woman seated in the chair one moment and contorting into another form the next, was the Holy Spirit.

The power that worked in me to lay hands on the woman and free her from the demon while I was speaking in tongues, was the Holy Spirit.

The power that worked in me to speak the Name of Jesus to the woman and get her to walk into her deliverance, was the Holy Spirit.
