Christmas In Your Church

Introduction

If you're a Christian reading this introduction, can you tell me why on the day Christians are supposed to stand up and honor the birth of Christ, most still live and participate in the lie of Santa Claus bringing toys to children?

Why am I asking?

Because this lie completely takes the glory of that day away from God.

This book, provides numerous other ways to teach children the truth about Jesus being the reason for the Christmas season.

It shows how to tell the story of Baby Jesus and the Magi, using the same Christmas gifts, and also includes skits written by Brother Keith that can help you tell the story, and takes a look at how to teach your members to celebrate Holidays in God's House from a truly Christian perspective.

But first, Christmas In Your Church opens with a letter to all Christians that I encourage churches to use to help their members stop the lie.

December 15th, 2012

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Christian,

I'm writing this letter to let you know that you don't have to stay up on Christmas Eve this year. This year we're doing something different. We're going to be down at the church all night until about 6:00 a.m. praying, hearing the Word of God, singing, praising, dancing, and fellowshiping with other Christians who are tired of living a lie.

There will be no lying to children. There will be no buying toys and hiding them in the attic, in the basement, in the garage, or in the closets, so that you can help the world continue perpetrating a lie that a jolly old man with a white beard, and a red suit, is going to slide magically down the chimney, and leave all sorts of presents under your tree.

Sorry to disappoint you, but really, I'm not. If it takes this kind of letter to wake you up as Christians, so that you can get back to, be reminded of, and help you understand how vitally important it is for children at a young age to believe in the truth of the birth of Jesus and the reason why we celebrate. Christ did not come to be born, then die so someone else could take credit.

No one is going to help you this year either. Don't call or ask anyone to come and sip hollynog while you sit around the fireplace and wrap gifts for people who are not acknowledging, promoting, and enjoying the real meaning behind Christmas. Sure you can still buy gifts, but give them in the real spirit of Christmas, not the lie you've been living. It's Ok to buy toys. But tell your kids, grandkids, and anyone else you buy toys for, the TRUTH!

And...if you haven't heard...Santa Claus is a MYTH!

Many Blessings this CHRISTMAS season.

Signed,
Your Church
